

Daily Announcements
Thursday, March 11, 2010

1. Just a reminder, Winter Sports Awards for all winter sports and activities is tonight at 7 PM in the cafeteria.
2. Seniors! Don't forget to pay your cap and gown fee for graduation in the Bookstore. The cost is $30.00 to be paid by April 30th.
3. The May graduation list is posted in the cafeteria and on the Guidance Office window. Check the list for any changes that you need to make. Diplomas will be ordered from this list. Give Ms. Robledo any changes before Friday, March 12th in Room 215, as this is how your name will appear on your diploma.
4. Did you know George Washington was the first United States President to initiate the census of the population. The 2010 Census is here. Be an active participant in the U.S. Census. It's easy and it's an effective method to be a part of our government system of collecting data. Check out www.2010census.gov
5. It's that time of year when the student will teach the teacher. On March 20th at 11 AM the 5th Annual Argo Open will take place in the Fieldhouse. Admission is a $1 donation. All proceeds for this event go to the Argo Boys' Tennis Scholarship -- And in the end it all comes down to one thing, who wants bragging rights!
6. The Ethnic Show is coming! But it can't happen without your talent. So practice your acts and try out on Friday, March 19th. The show is scheduled for Friday, March 26th. Hurry, there are only 2 weeks until tryouts and 3 until the show. For more information see Mrs. Debski in Room 110C.
7. All students planning to attend the field trip to the Illinois Holocaust Museum march 20th, please get your money to Ms. Allison or Ms. Guldin by Friday, March 12th.
8. A representative from Western Illinois University will be in the cafeteria on Monday, March 15th during all lunch periods. Interested juniors and seniors should visit the college table.
9. The "Yes I Can" students who are in the Cook County Summer Work Program will meet tonight at 6:30 p.m. at the Summit Community Task Force Building.
10. Earth Day is coming soon! The Environmental Club is sponsoring a contest where you could win huge prizes, such as gift cards to Best Buy, Subway and more. Submit an original work of art, piece of writing or creative song that represents what Earth Day means to you or the importance of Earth Day. All work should be submitted by April 16th to Mrs. Naughton in Room 210.